NORTHFIELD STAPLETON, CONTINUING TO GROW, ANNOUNCES THREE NEW STORES

DENVER – February 21, 2020 – Denver’s most convenient shopping, dining, entertainment and lifestyle destination is expanding, with a range of exciting new retail and restaurant options announcing plans to open their newest locations at The Shops at Northfield: Charlotte Russe will open in March, and Kung Fu Tea and YogaSix will open some time in the spring.

“We are so pleased to welcome these new tenants,” said Northfield’s general manager, Diana Fiore. “We strive to provide an exciting and dynamic retail mix that meets the evolving needs of our community.”

- Charlotte Russe, a beloved fast-fashion brand, was recently acquired by Toronto-based clothing manufacturer YM Inc., which “marries a beloved brand with a sophisticated retail platform” (USA Today). Charlotte Russe will reopen its Northfield location by mid-March and will be located on 46th Avenue, across from Harkins Theatres.
- Kung Fu Tea will be located near Harkins Theatres and will offer guests an unrivaled Bubble Tea experience. The name itself reflects their desire to help customers to self-improve and to expand their capabilities beyond limitations (kungfutea.com/about).” From ingredients to customer service, guests speak highly of Kung Fu Tea’s authenticity, quality, attention to detail and fearlessness.
- YogaSix offers life-enhancing benefits through six core Yoga classes, including Y6 101, Y6 Restore, Y6 Slow Flow, Y6 Hot, Y6 Power and Y6 Sculpt & Flow (yogasix.com/about). The teachers at YogaSix “make it easy for everyone to follow and understand, with a variety of classes to fit your needs, so you can achieve your goals. There’s no intimidation here!” The new studio will be located on 49th Avenue, across from Macy’s.
